Medical Responsibilities: Medical or other unexpected expenses during the trip are the responsibility of the participant. We advised participants to obtain travel insurance. Information about insurance will be send to you upon receipt of deposit. Use of a Chinese medical facility requires prepayment prior to the physician seeing/treating the patient, even in emergency situation. Travel to China can be difficult for hose with disabilities or requiring special medical attention/services. We ask that you consult your physician prior to the tour program and obtain necessary immunization and medications.

Cancellation Policy: Chinese Cultural Exchange (CCE) must strictly adhere to its cancellation policy to offset costs incurred prior to the commencement of the tour, which may include, but are not limited to: advance payments to land operators, communication expenses; development/promotional expenses; and the loss of time that might have permitted resale of reserved space. Cancellation for all or any part of the trip will not be effective until they are received in writing in the office of CCE. Cancellation received after confirmation of booking and up to 90 days before departure, is subject to a $300 per person cancellation fee. No refunds will be given for cancellation within 90 days of departure. We strongly recommend for your protection that you purchase Trip Cancellation Insurance. Cancellation insurance forms can be requested from us.

Basis of Rates: All prices are based on two persons sharing a room. All prices and fares are quoted in U.S. dollars. The rates are based on current tariffs and are subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, if it is necessary to levy a surcharge, we reserve the right to do so, and notification will be given at the time of final invoicing.

Photography: Chinese Cultural Exchange and our partner organizations reserve the right to take photographs or videos during the operation of any tour or part thereof and to use the resulting photography for Chinese Cultural Exchange promotional purposes. By making a reservation with Chinese Cultural Exchange, participants agree to allow their images to be used in such photography.
